25 YEAR RE-REVIEW

9 December 1953

As [redacted] mentioned in his 2 November letter, I had every intention of writing you some time ago - sorry for the delay.

I should like to assure you, however, that the possibilities of utilizing your talents have been thoroughly explored throughout the Agency. An extreme interest was indicated in view of your excellent background but, unfortunately, there just is no suitable vacancy at this time. Your application will certainly be made a matter of record in the event our internal personnel situation should change.

Incidentally, I have had the matter of your letter of 2 October looked into and find that it had been received in the Agency. Through an internal error, it had not been referred to [redacted]. Thanks for calling this to our attention; appropriate steps are being taken to prevent recurrence of such errors.

Your interest in the Agency is deeply appreciated, and I regret exceedingly that we've been unable to locate a position in which your services could be utilized. I do hope that my delay in writing has not inconvenienced you.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

25X1

C. P. CABELL
Lieutenant General, USAF
Deputy Director
